Welcome to Scouting! As a new Scout volunteer, you are joining our Scouting family, and we want you to understand how the program works. The Boy Scouts of America is committed to your success as a volunteer while serving young people. To help you be successful there are training materials designed for you.

Every Boy Deserves a Trained Leader

There are two types of training to begin your road to success. They are Fast Start Orientation, which presents a quick introduction to get new volunteers ready for your first meeting or activity, and Youth Protection training.

What Is Youth Protection Training?

We seek to create as safe an environment as possible for young people to enjoy our program's activities. The Boy Scouts of America Youth Protection training addresses strategies for personal safety awareness for youth as well as adults. Age-appropriate programs and DVD materials include:

- Youth Protection Guidelines: Training for Volunteer Leaders and Parents—Adults come away with a much clearer awareness of the kinds of abuse, the signs of abuse, and how to respond and report should a situation arise.
- Youth Protection Guidelines: Training for Adult Venturing Leaders—Designed to give guidance to the leaders in our teenage coed Venturing program. Supervision and relationship issues have a different focus regarding personal safety with this age group.
- It Happened to Me—Developed for Cub Scout-age boys from 6 to 10 years old and their parents. It addresses the four rules of personal safety: Check first, go with a friend, it's your body, and tell.
- A Time to Tell—A video for Boy Scout-age boys from 11 to 14 years old—the target group for most molesters. It stresses the three R's of youth protection: Recognize, Resist, and Report.
- Youth Protection: Personal Safety Awareness—Developed for youth ages 14 through 20 in the coeducational Venturing program. It deals with issues pertinent to this age group.

Two-deep leadership—No one-on-one contact—Respecting privacy—Reporting problems

So, how do I begin? Check when completed.

Training for New Volunteers

What Makes a Trained Leader? (Check when completed)

- Fast start training for Cub Scout, Boy Scout, and Venturing leaders as well as Youth Protection training programs are available through your local council's Web site and service center.
- Online training is convenient. Your council's Web site may have an icon for Youth Protection training, or you can check under "Training" or "Resources."
- Don't know your council's Web address? Go to www.scouting.org and select the training that fits your needs.
- You are expected to complete Youth Protection Guidelines: Training for Volunteer Leaders and Parents or, if you are involved in Venturing, Youth Protection Guidelines: Training for Adult Venturing Leaders within the first 90 days of your registration.
- Cub Scout leaders are considered trained when they have completed Fast Start training, Youth Protection training, and New Leader Essentials.
- Scoutmasters and assistant scoutmasters are considered trained when they have completed New Leader Essentials, Scouting and Assistant Scoutmaster Leader Specific Training, and introduction to outdoor leader skills.
- Troop committee members are considered trained when they have completed Fast Start training, Cub Scout Leader Position Specific Training, and New Leader Essentials.
- Varsity Scout leaders and assistants are considered trained when they have completed New Leader Essentials, Varsity Scout Leader Specific Training, and Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills.
- Venturing crew Advisors, assistant Advisors, and crew committee members are considered trained when they have completed New Leader Essentials and Venturing Leader Specific Training.

Leadership skills—No one-on-one contact—Respecting privacy—Reporting problems

The Boy Scouts of America has adopted these policies primarily for the protection of our youth members; however, they also serve to protect our adult volunteers and leaders from false accusations of abuse.

National Parent Initiative

The National Parent Initiative has been designed to increase youth and parent recruitment, retention, advancement, participation, dedication, and a passion for Scouting. Your involvement and commitment is essential to the success of your child's Scouting experience. We encourage the parents (guardians) for each child to:

1. Participate with them.
2. Go to and observe their meetings.
3. Be part of their unit's program—both weekly meetings and outings.
4. Support the program financially.
5. Coach them on their advancement and earning of recognition awards.
6. Help in at least one troop role during the year.
